

Modern Slavery Act Compliance Statement

SenaCare Services Ltd is committed to conducting business with integrity and ethical standards, including in relation to human rights and the prevention of modern slavery. We fully support the objectives of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and are committed to ensuring that slavery and human trafficking do not take place within our business or supply chains.

We have taken steps to identify and assess the risks of modern slavery in our business and supply chains, and have implemented policies and procedures to prevent and address any such risks. We have also provided training to our staff on the risks of modern slavery and their responsibilities to prevent it.

We require all of our suppliers and contractors to comply with our Supplier Code of Conduct, which includes provisions related to human rights, including modern slavery. We conduct due diligence on our suppliers and contractors to ensure compliance with our standards and the requirements of the Modern Slavery Act.

Our commitment to preventing modern slavery is reflected in our slavery and human trafficking statement, which is published on our website in accordance with the requirements of the Modern Slavery Act. The statement sets out the steps we have taken to ensure compliance with the Act and our ongoing efforts to monitor and improve our practices.

We are committed to maintaining our compliance with the Modern Slavery Act and to working with our stakeholders to prevent modern slavery in all forms. We will continue to review and update our policies, procedures, and due diligence processes as necessary to ensure that we remain vigilant in preventing and addressing modern slavery.
